A CAREFUL conservative estimate shows that there are needed in Fort Worth at present time at least 2000 more homes. Building sites for homes are scarce. Where are they going to get them? With the wonderful growth that Fort Worth is going to have, lots such as we offer in Cheltenham are going to be worth a great deal more money within the year than we are asking. Remember this is a highly restricted addition where there will be no frame house, shops or apartments. All buildings will be of brick or tile and stucco. There will not be in a year two some unsightly unpainted frame cottages built near you to depreciate your investment, your home and your neighbor's homes and the entire addition will continually enhance in value from year to year. This not only assures pleasant surroundings but the best of environment for you and your family. These lots are selling fast at this time, already building has started on the addition. Make your selection now. Remember we put in all improvements free of cost to you.
